

Medical Facilities

Health services at our university are provided by the Infirmary unit. Students, administrative and academic staff can benefit from the infirmary unit. In the Infirmary, where there is a Nurse, medical intervention and necessary care are provided in emergency health problems with daily outpatient services and referral to the hospital is made when further examination and treatment is required.